

PAID INTERNSHIP:
COMMUNITY SERVICES T/TA INTERN
Tribal Training & Technical Assistance Program

Position Overview

The Community Services Internship is ideal for those interested in working on behalf of Native American and Alaska Native communities. Interns will experience program and policy implementation at the federal level, while also learning about challenges being addressed and best practices underway in local communities. Interns also have the opportunity to observe the management of a national training center and explore approaches to help maximize the impact of federal funding for Tribes and Tribal Organizations. The Community Services Intern is an integral member of a small, collaborative team working to ensure high-quality, effective T/TA services for our national network of Tribes and Tribal Organizations. The successful candidate will be a team player that can thrive in a fast-paced, dynamic, and mission-driven environment.

The position is remote/telework. Minimum time commitment is 20 hours per week, flexible Monday - Friday between the hours of 8:00am and 6:00pm, for at least 12 weeks. Successful candidates may have the option to extend their internship. Intern will be paid $20/hour.
