2022 Capability Statement

Lux Consulting Group, Inc. (Lux) is a professional services firm helping government and non-government clients manage social programs and science programs. We work with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, National Science Foundation, US Department of Education, US Department of Health and Human Services, and others. These clients rate us as “exceptional.” We also have small business designations, such as the HUBZone certification, which make it easier and advantageous for the federal government and large primes to hire us.

Lux enlightens. We illuminate and improve program performance, engagement, and impact through our six services:

Training, Technical Assistance, Monitoring, Evaluation, & Learning (TTA MEL)

Education Support Services & Internship Program Management

Grants Management & Peer Review Support

Contracts Administration & Contract Closeout Support

Web Applications & Website Support

Meeting & Event Support

Our Mission:

Lux's mission is to improve the impact of social programs and science programs.

Lux supports the National Science Foundation in its work with an international consortium that funds environmental change research. The consortium has backed over 134 projects and supports more than 1,000 scientists and stakeholders around the world.

Lux has processed over 23,720 forms and supported more than 12,839 reviews and over 11,000 users to help match applicants to internships, scholarships, fellowships, and residency programs.

Lux has provided peer review assistance for nearly 35,000 grant applications from over 1,000 competitions for federal agencies.

Lux supports Contracting Officers throughout the federal procurement process. We have also helped close out hundreds of federal contracts, including highly complex cost-reimbursable type contracts.

Lux provides an online resource center to assist 65 Tribes and tribal organizations receiving funds under the US Department of Health & Human Services' Community Service Block Grant.

Lux has provided logistical support to federal agencies for dozens of conferences all over the United States. We have processed over $3 million dollars in honorarium and reimbursement payments on behalf of the federal government.
